

EURODOC 2017 in Portugal

Workshop for documentary producers & filmmakers
Sintra, from October 2 to 7, 2017

Around 30 European and international documentary producers and more than 20 Commissioning Editors will gather, in Sintra in Portugal for the third session of the EURODOC 2017 programme, thanks to the support of the ICA – Instituto do Cinema, Audiovisual e Multimédia.

During the session, there will be a specific workshop, offering to a group of 10 to 12 Portuguese professionals full access to this EURODOC seminar. We will select up to 12 projects by local producers or filmmakers. They will have the opportunity to work on the development of their projects with a group leader, Jacques Bidou, founder of the Eurodoc programme and producer (JBA Production). At the same time, they will have full access to the plenary sessions, masterclasses and case studies alongside the other EURODOC 2017 participants.

The workshop will focus on analyzing the projects of the participants, in terms of script and development, in order to consolidate the global coherence of each project. It will be a unique opportunity to establish relationships with a group of European documentary professionals.

During the week, 2 screenings will be organised for a broader audience, with a debate on the production process of the film and its distribution outcome. The professionals from the city will be welcomed to join these showcases and lectures and meet all EURODOC participants and experts.

Registration: Applications must be entered by July 17th.
